The Friends also fund items that are not part of the library's annual budget.

Friends Bookstore

The bookstore offers an ongoing sale of gently used books (also some music and movies) for all ages at bargain prices. Friends sort donations and stock the bookstore.

Located next to the café, the bookstore is open during library hours. Books are also sold off-site at Breaking New Grounds in downtown Durham.

We welcome donations of used books in very good condition. We cannot take textbooks, encyclopedias, dictionaries, or books that are stained, musty, or marked up. Donations are accepted Monday - Saturday during the last full week of each month.

Friends Cookie Basket

Volunteers provide a variety of baked goods for patrons to purchase at the circulation desk. All proceeds benefit children's programs. Baking is a fun, tasty way to contribute!

To sign up, email the Friends at friendsdurhamlibrary@gmail.com or go to the Friends page on the library website durhamlibrary.org, located on the "About the Library" tab.

Friends Meetings

The Friends meet on the third Wednesday, 1:30PM, most months of the year. New Members are always welcome. If you would like to work with a great group of people while supporting your library, join us!
